

BOB HOCKING

Bob played for Collingwood for fourteen years, which included three premierships teams. In 1971 he was elected to the Executive, helping the PMBA as an Assistant Secretary, Secretary 1978-80 and Vice Chairman 1981-83. In these roles he assisted in the practical organisation of the senior competition when it became part of Eltham's senior competition. Bob was awarded life membership in 1980.
