

GWEN FISHER

Gwen received her life membership at the Club's first life membership ceremony. Mother of four participants, Anita, David, Trevor and Paul, Gwen undertook being uniform officer when such time-consuming operations were out of a home. Also, she coached three teams, including initiating the Club's first women's team and became Vice President of the Club. Gwen received the equal first life membership in 1977 after eleven years of assisting the Club. Keith, Gwen's husband, also assisted as a tour supervisor.
