

JILL BASSETT (BOGLE)

Jill, the daughter of life member, David Bogle, was a super-active member of the Club as soon as she started playing. Following the tradition of junior coaching, Jill was soon involved there, but also in junior administration. As early as 82/83 she won the junior outstanding club service award. Jill also assisted at camps and helped with fund-raising efforts. After a brief break Jill was back coaching as her children Kaylen and Lachlan, started playing. She also set to the task of skill development of the younger players in the Club, setting up many juniors to a fine basketball future. In 2011 she enjoyed the success of being the coach of an Under 12VC premiership team, the second for the Club t that age and level. In 2012 Jill was awarded life membership.
