

JUNE GROPPI

June's sons Cameron and Todd started their basketball career at Greenhills but when they joined Eltham, June soon became involved. She supported the championship program, particularly senior championship. However, her most substantial contribution was being tribunal secretary for nearly twenty years, after Eltham formed a tribunal when granted association status. June also supported fund-raising efforts and supported the senior championship teams. Life membership was granted to June in 1991.