

KEVIN ANDREWS

Kevin might well be called Mr Everything. Kevin's children Stephen, Leonie, Jamie and Karen, were supported by him but he also took a wider interest in the Club. Kevin was a tour organiser, away tournament organiser, Eltham tournament organiser, coach of boys' and girls' teams, referee, keeper of primary competition ladders. odd job man, girls' teams' co-ordinator and supporter for his family. Kevin was a frequent organiser and leader of camps at Port Sorrell. His contribution spans four decades, making him among the eight longest contributors to the Club. Even when he stopped coaching, he continued on as a Co-operative director. Kevin accepted life membership in 1994.
