

PETER HICKLING

When Joyce Hickling became involved, so husband, Peter did also. Peter focussed on coaching and refereeing which continued long after Michael and Leigh had graduated. Indeed, he and a group of friends self-titled as the “dinosaur club”, his renowned refereeing partner well into the 21st century being Ron Houston. He coached middle-aged junior girls’ teams for two decades, some of whom keep in contact with a coach who helped them along life’s way. Peter also assisted in tournament organisation. He received life membership in 2012, becoming the second instance where marriage partners both obtained life membership.
